An invitation to Garh Kauthig 2026 — an afternoon of Garhwali music, dance and celebration

Respected Sir / Madam,

There is a moment, somewhere in the middle of a kauthig, when the dhol finds its rhythm and a room stops being an audience. We would be honoured to have you there for it — at the Silver Jubilee Convention Centre on Thursday, 13 August 2026, from 01:00 PM onwards.

You know these students from the lecture hall: hands raised, deadlines negotiated, presentations survived. Garh Kauthig offers quite another view of them — in traditional attire, drumming the dhol and damau, singing the songs their grandmothers sang.

“Tradition, Togetherness, and Timeless Culture”

THE THEME OF GARH KAUTHIG 2026

Do come, and be celebrated as much as the performers are. The hills will be loud, the colours bright, and the afternoon will not feel complete without you.

With warm regards and deep respect,

GARH KAUTHIG
