TRADITION, TOGETHERNESS, AND TIMELESS CULTURE

An invitation to Garh Kauthig 2026 — where the hills are both the subject and the source

Dear Research Scholars,

Much of what a scholar chases through an archive, a kauthig keeps alive in a courtyard. On Thursday, 13 August 2026, from 01:00 PM onwards, the Silver Jubilee Convention Centre becomes exactly that courtyard, and we would be delighted if you joined us in it.

The dhol and damau, the hudka, the ransingha, the jhora circle that closes only when the last dancer joins it — at Garh Kauthig 2026 these are not exhibits. They are a living tradition, performed by students who learned them at home rather than from a reading list.

“Tradition, Togetherness, and Timeless Culture”

THE THEME OF GARH KAUTHIG 2026

Come for the scholarship of it, or simply for the afternoon. Either way there is a seat waiting, and a great deal of colour to fill it with.

With warm regards,

GARH KAUTHIG
